

good, old North Dakota greenbacks.

Oscar Greenland and wife took their little daughter, Bernice, who is afflicted with infantile paralysis to Minneapolis Monday to consult a specialist. In a letter to The Times, Mr. Greenland says that the doctor has assured them of more aid than was expected.