

... occasionally.

An application has been made to the North Dakota board of railroad commissioners by the Griggs County Telephone company and the Central North Dakota Co-operative Telephone company of Dazey, asking permission for the sale to the latter of all the interest of the first named company in the telephone exchange at Sutton and 16½ miles of farm lines between Sutton and Glenfield and elsewhere near Sutton.

W. D. Ehlert and wife