

O. S. Helgeland, who has been the local manager of the Crane-Johnson Lumber company since their entrance here, left Tuesday morning for Cooperstown, to attend to some business matters, and proceeded from there to his old home at Northwood, Iowa. Mr. Helgeland has been an accommodating gentleman to do business with, and by a close application to his duties he succeeded in building up a splendid business for his employers. He made many friends during his residence in Binford who were sorry that the merging of the local lumber yards necessitated his removal. The Times joins with others in wishing Mr. Helgeland much prosperity and success.
