

O. S. Helgelaud arrived here last evening from Leeds where he has been employed with the Imperial Lumber company the past summer. He has resigned his position with that company and accepted one with the Crane-Johnson Lumber company but doesn't know as yet which yard he will take charge of.

A company of ladies including the