

the congratulations of their friends.

Wm. Hess and family left today via the Great Northern from Sutton for their new home on a farm near Poplar, Montana. The Hess family will be missed by their neighbors and friends in this community by their removal, but we all join in wishing for them an abundance of the good things in life.

Sutton Reporter: An effort will