

tone.

W. D. Hewitt, the moving picture man, will have a treat for movie goers next Tuesday evening when he will show the war of the world in four parts. These pictures will show just exactly what happened from the assassination of Crown Prince Ferdinand to the recent battles in Belgium and France.