

John Ebentier completed a deal a few days ago whereby another party becomes the owner of his fine 640 acre farm. F. W. Hochberger of Iowa is the purchaser, and the farm impressed him so favorably that he was ready to close the deal the first time he saw it without taking any time for consideration. Mr. Ebentier will not give up possession of the place until next spring. He and his family have made no definite announcement of their plans for the future, but we understand they may move back to Wisconsin, their former home.—Sutton Reporter.
