

While riding horseback, to school one morning last week, Alex Hogie, who is making his home with Anton Larson, fell off the horse, cutting his face quite badly. Dr. Truscott was called and found it necessary to take some stitches in the wound.