

gram.

Christine Hovel was brought to her home Sunday from the hospital at Northwood where she had been for over two weeks following an operation. The family believes that she will soon regain her accustomed health.