

Matt Hovel, that jovial Dutchman from near Pekin, was in Binford yesterday. This warm weather has aroused the baseball enthusiasm in Matt and he is decidedly dissatisfied with the baseball outlook in Binford at the present time. He has been an ardent rooter for the Binford team in former years and he is unwilling to change his tactics now. Cheer up Matt, there is a possibility that Binford may yet get into the game.