

M. S. Hyland was here from Fargo Saturday making some changes in the electric light plant. He had also been to Cooperstown, where he secured the contract for installing a white way lighting system.