

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Idsvoog returned to Maddock, Tuesday, after a few days' visit at their parental homes. Mr. Idsvoog has accepted a position as cashier in a bank at Galata, Montana, a new town west of Havre, and he and Mrs. Idsvoog left this week for their new home. This position is in the way of a promotion to Mr. Idsvoog. The gentlemen who own the bank at Maddock, where he was employed, have bought out the interests of the bank at Galata, and recognizing in Arthur a young man of excellent business qualities and a pleasing personality, this position was tendered him. Their many Binford friends are glad to hear of their good fortune, and wish them much happiness.
