

The movies last Saturday evening were good and fairly well attended. Following the show the management put on a dance program, in which a number of our young people participated and enjoyed a royal time. On the 27th and 30th the Kent road show will put on first-class attractions. The movies will be discontinued for the present.

---