

F. E. Rule is busy making a number of needed improvements on the hall which he recently purchased. He is putting in three windows on the north side and two on the south, so there will be sufficient light and air.