

JESSIE NEWS.

N. O. Haugen was a visitor here Saturday on business.

Julius Thorn, of Binford, was a Jessie caller Tuesday.

Miss Tysson, our school ma'am, left on Thursday for a visit at Warren, returning on Monday.

Our Auto Oils will satisfy you in all respects. Four grades for different makes.—Rogney', Jessie.

Fred is wondering if all his customers are raising beards or have gone on a strike and won't shave until Bryan is elected.

John Hovel and Gus Suess, our local contractors, have returned from a week's work at the Pfeifer farm, east of Cooperstown.

Farmers, attention! When you need empty 50 gal. barrels for any purpose we can supply your needs.—Rogney's Hardware, Jessie.

One of our young ladies was out shooting gophers when she run into a colony of snakes. At last accounts she had proven herself a good shot.

The farmers report that seeding is progressing at a favorable rate. If the rain will hold off for a short time work will be pushed with all possible speed.

Louis Rude's smile is growing broader every day. Why? Auto bubbles, mudholes, blowouts, after a long dry spell. How would you like to be a blacksmith?

If you require any Fencing Wire, it will pay to buy now.—Market advices are to the effect that prices will be much higher in the next 30 days.—Rogney's Hardware, Jessie.

Olai Lybeck and Oliver Jenson were shooting gophers on Sunday. Judging from the tales they tell, the farmers have good cause to congratulate the nimrods on their success.

Mrs. Inches, our hotel proprietor, is a busy lady these days. Between her regular boarders and the number of transients, who see a great future in Jessie, she has her hands about full.

The Jessie Base Ball club will give a dancing party on Saturday night at Hovel's hall. Music by five-piece orchestra and a good time is insured all who come. Supper will be served at the hotel.

Last Saturday evening our only R. R. magnate came down the street driving a Ford touring car filled with kids and good cheer. When the people heard the tooting they thought it was a fire or a circus.

Messrs. Urness and Amundson of Aneta, have just completed the shipment of a large car of hogs. Good prices prevailed. If there are any hogs left around here it must be a mistake. Come again, gentlemen.

Every housewife wants a good kitchen floor, for she sure spends many hours on it. A good inlaid Linoleum is not an expense—it is an investment, a thoroly guaranteed quality at $1.25 per square yard. Let us talk it over.—Rogney's Hardware, Jessie.

The girls of the school will have a dressmaking contest Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tollefson. Newspapers and pins will be used. No shears allowed. The winner will receive a playground ball. Sore fingers and hearty laughs are looked for.

Jessie was a lonesome town on Sunday on account of so many of our people being absent. Arthur Haugen spent Sunday at McHenry; Jas. Strand was in Hannaford and Cooperstown; Glen Anderson went to visit his parents at Cooperstown on Saturday, returning Monday with Jimmie on the speeder.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rogney, and daughter, Rosabell, went to Cooperstown on Saturday. While there they enjoyed the Easter services at the Lutheran church on Sunday morning. Mr. Rogney returned that evening in the speeder rank, and Mrs. Rogney and daughter returned on Monday's train. They report having had a splendid time.

The Jessie Sunday School pupils gave a short and appropriate program at the school house. In the afternoon the pupils and teacher enjoyed a splendid time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hougen. With songs, stories and games, and last but not least a thoroughly appreciated supper the time went fast. They returned to their homes with a hearty goodby and "Come again" ringing in their ears.
