JESSIE NEWS.

Fred Claus was a Binford visitor, Monday. Fred has more time now than formerly.

W. H. Mark motored in for a couple days, but business interests elsewhere called him away.

Our former tonsorial artist, "Barb," returned Saturday from a visit to the eastern part of the state.

Messrs. Hovel and Sues are busy on the John Detwiller building and are pushing along as fast as possible.

O. E. and Robert Thorn and Ole Roningen have purchased new Illinois separators, which will be in use in a few days.

A large number of our people took advantage of the nice day, Sunday, to enjoy the lake. The bunch says the water was fine.

Rudolph Trost returned Thursday from an extended visit in South Dakota. Looks as though he's been fishing, he's so brown.

Messrs. Aurnus and Amundson are busy looking up four-legged pork chops for next week's shipment. They won't miss any.

Arthur Seigel, of Minneapolis, is an addition to our town. He arrived on Thursday of last week, and will be employed at the State bank.

H. M. Kvam, of Fargo, will be our new barber, having arrived Monday to take charge of the shop in the hall. We are pleased to welcome Mr. Kvam.

Otto Retzlaff and family, with D. Wilcox, returned Friday from Ray and Williston. They report crops but fair, some even in a poorer condition than here.

Good clear weather and a quick run is now the hope of our farmer friends. They want to know the truth about this year's crops. Then for the plowing.

A number of young people from town went out to the Jno. Haugen home Saturday evening and had a good time. Music and games with refreshments made a pleasant evening.

J. W. Ressler motored to Valley City, Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Ressler and daughter. They returned Sunday and brought as their guest, Helen Lehner, who will be here a week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Rogney entertained Art Olsen at their home Saturday evening. The piano and violin again joined forces and those who were there sure spent an enjoyable evening.

E. O. Retzlaff has found use for his spare hours in the supervision of the erection of two large silos near Cooperstown. As a supervisor of building construction, Emil brings home the bacon.

F. E. Rule is busy making a number of needed improvements on the hall which he recently purchased. He is putting in three windows on the north side and two on the south, so there will be sufficient light and air.

Miss Marion Rognoy, who has spent the past three months here with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rognoy, left on Wednesday for Froid, Montana, where she will visit for some time with her brother, Gilbert, then go back to her home in Seattle. She will be greatly missed by her many friends in the community.

The merry house party who have made the Norman McCulloch home a live one, is scattered somewhat. Miss Gray went to Carpio, where she will teach the young idea to shoot. The Misses Stinson returned to their home at Cooperstown and Miss Pearl Dahl went to visit her brother, C. G. Dahl, at Frazer, Montana. She will be there a couple of weeks when she will return to finish her last year at the Normal school at Valley City.

We were all pleased to welcome our old friend, Art Olsen, now of Van Hook in the Indian reservation country, who motored into Jessie on Saturday last. Art is as brown as a nut and hard as a nail. He spent Sunday at the lake, Monday with his family at Cooperstown, and in company with Oliver Jenson left by auto for Pelican Rapids, Minnesota, to visit at Oliver's home. They will return in a short time. Art says business is good at Van Hook.

Wall Street is for Hughes. The German vote is for Hughes. The great financial interests that are plotting to substitute a central bank for the Federal Reserve system are for Hughes. The monopolists who long a return of the era of special privileges are for Hughes. All the chief opponents of American neutrality are for Hughes. All the advocates of armed intervention and war with Mexico are for Hughes. All the champions of military conscription are for Hughes. All the trusts are for Hughes. All the political reactionaries and all the enemies of industrial, financial and corporation reform are for Hughes. This leaves only the common people, who have no axes to grind, no selfish interests to serve for Wilson.—Stutsman County Democrat.

Another Equity elevator meeting was held here Saturday evening and the deal for the farmers' elevator
