O. M. Rogney and family are back from their outing at the lake.

There is but one topic—"How many bushels are you getting?"

Robert Thorn and family have returned to town from a summer sojourn at Lake Willow.

Harry St. John, in company with N. O. Haugen, of McHenry, made a trip to Aneta and McVille Sunday.

Miss Edna Haugen who has been assisting Mrs. Inches at the hotel for some time, has returned to her home.

Miss Ness is visiting for a short time with the O. L. Anderson family. Her home is in the western part of the state.

Jas. A. McCulloch has bought the Rumley engine formerly owned by H. Hovel. In a short time he will be busy grinding out the grain.

Jimmie Strand motored to his old stamping grounds at Hannaford on Saturday evening and returned on Sunday. He brought his tires with him.

Fred Claus left Wednesday for Fargo where he will work in the Metropole barber shop. His many friends who make the town will recall the place.

Helen Lehner returned to Valley City Sunday after a short visit with the J. W. Ressler family. Agent Dalton drove to Valley and returned Sunday evening.

The farmers of a large territory find it necessary to call on Louis Ruud and his combination jitney. Louis' territory lies between Devils Lake and Valley City.

W. T. McCulloch and wife returned the past week from an extended trip to the Pacific Coast. They spent some time in Portland, Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Miss Hilda Watne returned Tuesday for an extended visit at Rochester, Minneasota, where she has been undergoing treatment for ear trouble. It is hoped she may full regain her hearing as before.

Adolph Arndt is fully convinced that a threshing engine can sure do stunts that will make any one gray beaded. Coupled with the fact that good cooks are like hens teeth he may be pardoned if he says ??.

Fred E. Rule, the new hall owner, put on a good movie show Saturday night. Those who attended say it was a satisfactory movie and but for the late threshing hours the attendance would have been larger.

Arthur Haugen is a firm believer in preparedness in the future. Art has made an upper room in the store building his resting place, but Saturday evening went to his home. Some amatuer cracksmen found it out and opened up the front with a club. They will enjoy the duck shoot with a couple of fine new guns.

Rev. Stinson preached to a large audience on Sunday at the schoolhouse. This was the fifth service he has conducted since he began. Work here and the interest is showing a healthy growth. Rev. and Mrs. Stinson were accompanied by G. N. Shepherd and wife of Cooperstown who drove up in their automobile.

E. J. Fiebigger is thankful that he has a whole jaw. The kick received sometime since from the horse, has proved to not be as serious as first thought. Ed says his wheat turned out better than he looked for. Julius Wurst says his wheat is fair only. In general so far the machine is turning out from 4 to 10 bushels.

Art Olson and Oliver Jenson returned Sunday from a brief visit to Oliver's family at Pelican Rapids. Art returned Wednesday to his new home at Van Hook. He will be accompanied by Oliver who has secured a good position there with the leading hardware house. Oliver will be greatly missed by the bunch and also many friends both in town and country. He will carry with him best wishes of all who know him.