JESSIE NEWS.

Happy Kvam was a business visitor at Binford on Thursday.

Mrs. Albert Rickford and Anna left on Friday for a visit at Revere.

Eddie Zimprich left on Saturday for a short visit with his sister at Alice.

Oscar Tweed and Jean Haugen left on Tuesday for 'a few days' visit at Fargo.

H. P. Hammer, of Cooperstown, paid Jessie a brief business visit on Thursday.

Mrs. J. C. Hazard of Cooperstown was a Jessie visitor for a short time on Thursday.

Col. Mark left for Jamestown on Friday and on Monday underwent an operation at his home. A phone message says he is coming on fine.

E. L. Watne is having considerable trouble with one of his hands, a wound having become infected in some way. It was necessary to call Dr. Truscott. We hope no further trouble may result.

Olaf Johnson was a Binford visitor on Friday to see Dr. Truscott. He spent the evening at Cooperstown, returning on Saturday. Olaf is somewhat stronger and hopes he may continue to improve.

A number of our town people gathered last Wednesday evening and made up a sleigh party for a call on Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Thorn. Everybody present had an enjoyable time. You bet we are going back again.

Alfred and Maynard Tweed returned from the Twin Cities on Saturday. Maynard has been attending the Augsburg seminary at Minneapolis, but will work on the farm for the spring and summer and will then take up another course of study later on.

Miss Elizabeth Rickford left on Monday for Jamestown, where she will make her home with Col. and Mrs. Mark. She will attend the Jamestown high school while absent. She will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.

Louie Ruud is busily engaged on plans for an aeroplane. The combination jitney is fine for blowouts and burnt boiler tubes, but deep snow cuts are too much. Louie would sure be some high flier. Some attraction, eh what?

A letter received from A. V. McColm says: "Things are on the boom here. Have finished my house and will now begin on the barn. Three elevators are busy day and night. As many as 50 teams waiting at one time to unload."

Our teacher, Arthur K. Olsen, has resigned his position, same to take effect Jan 19. It is not known at this writing who will be his successor, there being several in view. Notice will be given on Friday to the children regarding the coming week.

The basket social will be held in the hotel on Friday evening, Jan. 19. The money raised will be applied on the purchase of a new organ for our school. The old one now in use is not fit for further service. Everybody come and have a royal good time. "Our school is your school."
