

JESSIE NEWS.

There will be services in the school house Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thorn and children were Coopertown visitors Monday and Tuesday.

Olai Lybeck returned on Monday from Kindred, where he has been spending the holidays at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hazard came up Monday from Cooperstown to spend a few days visiting with the St. John family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Retzlaff and daughter, Helen, and David Wilcox were entertained at the Emil Retzlaff home on New Year's day.

Glenn Anderson, who has been attending the Inter-State Business college at Fargo the past few months, visited friends here on Saturday.

Arthur T. Olson spent a few days here last week calling on old friends. Art has had a successful year and is very well satisfied with his new location.

Miss Bertha Skofstad, teacher at the Hemerlin school, returned Monday from her home near Cooperstown, where she has been spending the holidays.

Fred Rickford who has been spending the holidays at his home here left Tuesday for Fargo where he will resume his studies at the Inter-State Business college.

Miss Pearl Dahl, who has been spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Norman McCulloh, returned to Valley-City, Monday, where she will resume her studies at the Normal.

The masquerade Monday evening was well attended, all who were present reporting a splendid evenings entertainment. The prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Mrs. H. V. Kvam and Frank Pfeifer.

Misses Edna Haugen and Bertha Tweed returned to Fargo, Tuesday, after having spent their holidays at their homes near here. They will continue their studies at the Oak Grove seminary. Miss Gerda Watne accompanied them and will attend the same school the remainder of the winter.