

JESSIE NEWS.

Friday was our busy day.

Hello Bill, through seeding yet?

Edna Haugen returned Thursday from Rochester and Minneapolis.

Robt. Thorn left Tuesday with a carload of cattle and hogs to St. Paul.

Miss Christine Hovel was a Fargo visitor for a few days, returning on Friday.

Andrew Detwiller of Cooperstown was a Jessie visitor Friday looking after business interests.

Emil Amundson returned from St. Paul Saturday. He says they want more Griggs county hogs.

Contractor Tweed and H. Sorvik of Binford began work on the finish for Emil Retzlaff's home, Thursday.

A number of flags floated at half mast Tuesday, and the bank was closed all day, observing Memorial day.

Mrs. Otto Retzlaff and daughter, Helen, with Dave Wilcox, left Tuesday for Mamie, Ontario, to be away two months.

Contractors John Hovel and Gus Sues have finished Adolph Arndt's work and are now at work on the N. O. Hougen farm.

Julius Thorn was a busy man in Jessie Friday. Julius and his Saxon will soon have a good road between Binford and Jessie.

Robt. Thorn and Oscar Rogney were Cooperstown visitors Friday, attending to matters of business and taking in the Meyer's trial.

W. H. Mark arrived from Jamestown Friday. Says he has closed a big real estate deal since his last visit here. He sure likes N. D. dirt.

Mrs. Harvey Larson left Tuesday for a couple months visit with her home folks at Nashua, Iowa. She will also visit with relatives in Minneapolis.

A new method of frescoing walls has been discovered by one of our prominent citizens. The plan is being copyrighted and will be placed on the market at a later date.

Miss Anna Tyson, our teacher, left Saturday for her vacation. She will visit with friends at her former school at Walum, after which she will go to her home at Fertile, Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Trost entertained a party of friends at their farm home Sunday afternoon. Those present were Miss Ryan, Mrs. Emil Retzlaff, Mrs. John Bechtel and Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilkinson.

Cleora Simpson, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Tollefson, for the past nine months, left Monday with her grandfather, Mr. Marks, for Jamestown, thence to her home at Wimbledon.

The popular teacher of the Arndt school has gone to her home at Bathgate. The pike and sturgeon of the Pembina and Red rivers have our sympathy, for Miss Ryan is a well known follower of Isaac Walton.

The Jessie school joined with the Arndt school and held a picnic at the McCulloch grove Friday. There was a large attendance but it was too cold for the quantity of good home-made icecream and circus lemonade.

J. W. Dalton and family with a number of other families went to Cooperstown Saturday for a good time. Mr. Dalton's young hopeful woke him up at 3:45 with the news that he must get up or it would be all over.

Memorial Day was fittingly observed by the Union Sunday school pupils at the schoolhouse. A short address was given by the superintendent on the origin and meaning of Memorial Day. A number of the pupils also took part in the exercises.

A letter received by Mr. McIntosh, from Rev. James Anderson of Fargo, the presiding elder of the Fargo Conference of the M. E. church, states that he will be in Jessie on Sunday of June 4th. The services will be held in Hovel's hall at 11, and in the evening at 7:30 with a live song service with orchestra accompaniment. This will be Mr. Anderson's first visit here and it is expected that a large crowd will attend. It is hoped that arrangements can be made for future services.

Last Thursday, travelers on the train at noon reported heavy losses of life and property along the line to the south, so much so about Wimbledon that F. S. Tollefson Sr. took the east bound train in the afternoon for his home there. It was an impossibility to get in wire communications so there was no recourse.

When he arrived home, however, he found that while a big garage roof was in his yard, the family was unhurt. Later in the day word reached here from Courtenay that so far as could be learned there were no casualties at Wimbledon. Mr. Tollefson and wife returned Friday to visit their son's family.

When the game was called Sunday between the Sheyenne's and the locals, there was a large number to witness the fracas, and they sure got all that was coming to them. The game opened with Sheyenne to bat. Up to the 7th inning was good stuff, but when the 7th opened, it proved to be a black Friday for the home boys. There was a cloudburst and the unexpected happened, and which is in the minds of some a blank now. When the smoke of battle cleared away the visitors had succeeded in making 10 runs. Woof! The score previous to this was 4 to 1 in favor of the locals. The remainder of the game was errorless, the final score being 11 to 4 in favor of the visitors. The Sheyenne battery was Stromme and Bostrom, and for the locals Arndt, Houghton and Hessel. The star feature was pulled off by a local player by mugging a pop fly. He promptly went on all fours after the sphere. To say that the play caught the crowd is putting it mildly. The laugh is still echoing. Our boys acknowledge bitter defeat but are burning with a desire to come back. And they will.
