F. B. King of Cooperstown was a caller for a short time Friday.

Oscar L. Olsen returned Friday from a visit to the Twin cities.

Our old fellow townsman, Max Wild spent Friday and Saturday in Jessie.

John Hovel and Gus Suess are busy building a new barn for Ed Fiebeiger.

A good number were present at the services in the Catholic church Sunday.

Sunshine and rain are rapidly bringing Griggs county to the front these nice days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole L. Anderson left for Fargo by auto, and will also visit at points in Minnesota.

O congenial friend, "Irish" Peterson, was a Jessie visitor Tuesday looking after business interests.

Miss Irene Wickham returned to her home at Sutton after a short stay at the L. J. Wilkinson home.

Jas. Strand motored to Sutton on Sunday returning in the evening. He says the rain Sunday was a wet one.

Chas. F. Arndt shipped a carload of hogs to St. Paul Tuesday. He knows they will "bring home the bacon."

Wm. Howden of Sutton spent some time in and around Jessie this week buying cattle for the eastern markets.

Martha and Tracy Clemens have gone to Glenfield to spend some time with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Iver Bodell.

The auto fever has sure struck our town. A. McColin is now driving a Ford roadster which he bought from the King-Brung Auto Co.

Rev. Stinson of Cooperstown will conduct services in the schoolhouse next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A quartette will furnish music.

Chas. O. Johnson drove into Jessie Friday in a new Paige. Chas. says if it doesn't balk or take the bit he will be happy. Here's hoping.

The township board of supervisors met with Sec. E. A. Retzlaff Monday and went over the assessment list. No changes were found necessary.

The Jessie ball team drove to Hannaford Sunday in two auto loads, but when all togged up for the game the rain came. As a result they came home wet.

Chas. Retzlaff, who has had a number of road outfits around Jessie the past few days will finish his work Wednesday and move his crews to the north part of the township.

Ben Pfeifer says he will now enjoy the pleasures of blowouts and punctures and balky carburators that are a part of the motorist. Ben has just purchased a Ford roadster. Wonder how many chickens Ben keeps.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marks of Jamestown motored to Jessie Saturday. They are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tollefson for the week. Mr. Marks reports bad roads to Sutton and better from there on.

John Hougen and family, Mrs. E. Watne, and Mr. and Mrs. Tollef Tweed left Tuesday to attend the Lutheran church conference at Wilmar, Minn. They will also visit with friends at Benson before returning.

O. M. Rogney confessed to sixteen summers and unknown winters. He says the birthdays come so fast he has lost track. When asked by a friend how old he was he replied that in two hours he would be 60. Running bases helped. A number of friends spent the evening with the family.

Thursday and Friday were busy days for our town. M. F. Hegge, of Hatton, president of the Red River Valley Telephone company, Iver Thompson of Hatton, vice president, Chas. Tolan, of Mayville, manager, and John Sundquist, director of Aneta, with Harry St. John and others interested went over the situation thoroughly. In company with C. O. Johnson and O. L. Anderson the officers visited Cooperstown and Binford and looked over the entire field. They expressed themselves as being pleased with the condition of the property and would do all that is possible to close a deal that would be satisfactory to all concerned. It is believed that matters will be brought to a definite conclusion soon.

There was a splendid time out at the barn dance given by the Rickford boys at their home Saturday night. Music was furnished by G. Olsen, Bill Stringer, Oscar Rogney, Gus Suess, with Mrs. Fred Tollefson and Miss La Plante at the piano. Goodbyes were spoken about 4 a. m. A good time was the verdict of all. Other events are casting their shadows.

The Jessie baseball club has for some weeks hurled defiance both loud and long at the married men. What they wouldn't do to them on the diamond—my—umm. The married men finally plucked up courage and last Friday evening repaired to the field. The married men were first up to bat with F. Rickford in the box and A. Rickford catcher. The married men's battery was St. John, M. Wilkinson and R. Thorn. L. J. Wilkinson umpired. There was a good turnout to see the fun and they sure saw it. Oliver Jenson stole home while Rogney and Thorn were trying to connect with the pill. The score at the end of the fifth was 9-7, and owing to lateness the game was called. The following day several of our leading citizens who were looking for an easy seat and vowing like the raven, "Never again" and in the next breath saying that it was a glorious victory. They can come back.

The Free Methodists of the N. D. Conference will hold their annual camp meeting on the farm of S. R. Klein, seven miles southwest of Binford and nine miles north of Sutton, commencing June 15th and continuing until June 25th. Rev. W. S. Ballenger, District Elder in charge. Rev. C. W. Stamp of Chicago, Evangelist. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Come and enjoy a feast of good things.

WAIFF RESTORED BY NURSING

Kind Young Oregon Woman Brings Little One to Health, Home and Happiness.

Portland, Ore.—The mother-love of a kind-hearted nurse, Miss Helen Kielblock, has given a home and health to a nameless waif whose parents had left it to the care of the Albertine Kerr nursery home.

The pitiful condition of the baby, which was partly paralyzed and in terrible physical condition when it was abandoned by its parents, excited the pity of Miss Kielblock. She tended the child night and day, and bit by bit nursed it back to health and the complete use of its limbs.

And then, treasuring the affection which her care had aroused in the baby's heart, Miss Kielblock took the child into her own home and adopted it. Little Albertine Kielblock, who started life under almost hopeless conditions, now is a bright, healthy child with a foster mother as tender and loving as even a real mother could be.

TO REVIVE INDIAN CUSTOM

So antagonistic to all that modern civilization means were the ancient customs and lore of the American Indians that like their believers they have fast disappeared—have almost passed out of the memory of modern man. Some of the customs, however, are so beautiful that at infrequent intervals they are revived and one such resurrection of the lore of the dead past bids fair to become a society fad in the near future. It was an ancient
