

JESSIE NEWS.

Rudolph Trost spent Sunday at the Julius Worst home.

N. O. Hougen from McHenry was a caller here Saturday.

L. Ruud was a Binford visitor Monday between trains.

Matt Heller was a business visitor Friday from Cooperstown.

J. Edmundson transacted business here Friday, from Cooperstown.

Mrs. W. J. Dalton and daughter, Wilma, were Binford visitors Monday.

Andrew Thorn went to Binford Thursday to consult Dr. J. R. Truscott.

Mrs. J. Hazzard, of Cooperstown, spent Thursday with the St. John family.

August Anderson went to Cooperstown Tuesday where he will spend a few days on business.

John Glimsdahl returned Saturday from Fargo where he had spent a few days with friends.

Miss Mable Hogan left Saturday for Cooperstown where she will visit friends for a few days.

J. Atchison, of the Great Western Grain Co., called on the local manager, Carl Rickford, Thursday.

Mrs. Charles Retzlaff received the sad news of the death of her brother A. Fredrich, near Enderlin, Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Retzleff left for there the same day to attend the funeral.
