

JESSIE NEWS.

Miss Hilda Watne was a visitor at Binford between trains Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McCulloch autoed to Cooperstown Wednesday morning.

Emil Amundson returned Saturday from St. Paul where he had been with a car of hogs.

Herman Hovel and daughter, Christine, spent Friday in Binford, going up in their car.

Mrs. Harvey Larson and Miss Anna Tysson went to Cooperstown on Friday, returning home Saturday.

Fred Schluss has built a screened porch on his house. Fred says the hilarious fly has skated on his rink for the last time.

Miss Ellen Pfeifer came up from Cooperstown, Friday, and visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Hovel. She returned to her home Tuesday.

S. W. McOuat, of the Crane-Johnson Lumber company, was a Jessie visitor last Friday, calling on the local yard. He left on the freight for McHenry.

Miss Edna Wilkinson has returned to her home at Hannaford after a short visit with her brother and wife, J. L. Wilkinson, and Marion Wilkinson and family.

Seeding is progressing as rapidly as possible under the present weather conditions. Jessie residents were surely surprised on Sunday morning when they looked out and saw the blanket of white that covered everything in sight.

Matt Hiller came up from Cooperstown on Monday, to assist Wm. Stringer with the work of painting the Louis Rude house. Matt considers that good paint is cheap insurance. No question about that proposition.

A Maytag Washing Machine in the home is not only a time and strength saver but also a money saver. By no means a cheap machine but one that will and has given satisfaction in every home. Both hand and power.—Rogney's, Jessie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marks of Jamestown autoed to Wimbledon in Fred Tollefson's Ford, where Mrs. Marks remained to visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Simpson, while Mr. Marks came to Jessie. He returned to Jamestown Friday.

Last Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tollefson extended an invitation to the bunch to spend a pleasant hour. Mr. and Mrs. Rogney and Miss Rogney with Mr. Tollefson, Sr. made up a lively party. With music and singing it was a late hour before the company realized it.

E. A. Retzlaff is remodeling his house in Jessie. The work is being done under the direction of W. G. Tweed of Binford, assisted by Carl Grove and O. Tjelwedt. They began the work last Wednesday and will no doubt be here the balance of the week.

Our local base ball boosters gave a dance at Hovel's Hall Saturday evening with supper at Lehner's hotel. Music was furnished by Arthur Haugen, Gus Suess, O. M. Rogney of Jessie and F. Melgard and Harold Olsen of Cooperstown. Owing to the inclement weather the event was not as successful as was hoped for. Better luck, next time, fellows.

Robt. Thorn went to Fargo last Thursday to get his new Saxon Six. He left Fargo Friday afternoon driving on the Red Trail by the way of Valley City, then the Green Trail by Rogers, reaching home about 11 p. m. Robert reports the roads very rough. The Saxon Six is sold locally by Julius Thorn of Binford. Some car, eh Rob?

Miss Marion Rogney of Seattle, Wash., is visiting with her brother, Oscar Rogney, and family. Miss Rogney has been in poor health for some time but feels sure that the rest and fresh air of Griggs county will do much to help her regain her accustomed health. Before coming here she visited with Gilbert Rogney at Froid, Montana. Later she will visit with relatives elsewhere before returning to Seattle.

A party of school children met on Friday evening with Mr. McIntosh, at the Tollefson home. After the weekly song practise there was a dressmaking contest. Newspapers and pins with tissue paper for trimming were the materials used, and no scissors were allowed. The winners were Irene Ressler and Evangeline Rogne, who received playground balls. The costumes were simply great, especially the one made for Mrs. [Name] patterned after Worth.
