

JESSIE NEWS.

There will be no services in the school house next Sunday.

And the other fellow is wearing the hat—fun while it lasted tho.

Miss Annie Perchert of Coopers-town, is visiting the Herman Hovel family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. McCulloch, and Mr. and Mrs. P Dahl motored to the J. B. Howden home Sunday.

Miss Bertha Skofstad, who teaches in the Hermerlin school, left Wednesday, for Fargo to attend the state teachers institute.

Frank Arndt shipped his third car of stock in less than one year, Tuesday. He left that day for South St. Paul with a mixed car.

There was a large attendance at the Catholic Church on Sunday. The new Priest Rev. O'breine of Sanborn who will have charge hereafter, officiated.

Harvey Larson says he will have some nice pork chops in a few days. He thinks he has fed them long enough. All right, Harvey we'll come any time you say.

Tollef Tweed and family with a number of others took in the Conference at the Ebenezer Norwegian Lutheran Church south of Coopers-town, Friday to Sunday.

Wm. C. Garries of Duluth was a business visitor on Tuesday. He was somewhat impressed with the number of teams in town and carries with him a favorable impression.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazard of Coopers-town were guests of the St. John family on Friday last. Harry celebrated his 'steenth birthday by being about as busy as a hen with one chicken.

Will Dalton and family are living in temporary quarters while waiting patiently for the N. P. carpenters to fix up a permanent home on the south right-of-way. It is expected work will begin at once.

Prof. Walter Sigge announces a dance in the Jessie opera house, Friday, Nov. 17th. dance to start at 8 p. m. Music by the Jessie orchestra. Admission $1.00. Come early so we all will have a good old time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Langer and family, of Alice, are visiting at the Ed Zimprich home. They drove up in their car on Saturday and will remain for the week. Mrs. Langer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zimprich.

Emil Retzlaff has graduated from the nail and stove pipe headquarters and is now studying high finance under the able direction of Harry St. John. The architects who planned the standing desks at the bank were not acquainted with Emil, otherwise they would have made a change in the plans.

Albert Rickford returned Monday from the Twin Cities where he had been for the past two weeks. He went down with Julius Wurst taking down a car of stock. Albert says he had one good time visiting with old friends and acquaintances. He also visited relatives at Winona, but says Jessie and home looked good to him.

The past week has been a strenuous one for a number of our young people. Jimmie Strand says that it would be nice to sleep nights once in awhile. Between watching the scales on coal, figuring next year's barn bills, attending the various social functions and keeping his Wilsonion eye on the election returns, he has been fairly busy.

There was a good number at the preaching service at the schoolhouse on Sunday. The weather conditions hindered a number from attending who would otherwise have been present. The District Supt. Rev. Jas. Anderson will be with us on the 26. It will be remembered that he preached the first Sunday in June in the hall. Everyone is cordially invited attend.

Col. Mark left by auto, on the 4th for his home at Jamestown. A few days later he was in Montana, where he made a hundred mile auto trip; traded a Fargo flat building for some thousand acres of land in McKenzie County, N. D.; on the return trip he autoed from Aneta; said hello to a friend in Jessie on Friday; and ate breakfast in Jamestown Saturday morning. Some globe-trotter, is the Colonel.

There was sure a live bunch at the informal gathering in the hotel last Friday evening. Mrs. Inches, having decided to give up the hotel for the present invited a large number in. Whist tables were well occupied the fore part of the evening while dancing was participated in later on. A bountiful supper was served at midnight. Prof. Walter Sigge entertained with violin, flute and voice. Encores were plentiful and he gave a royal response. A feature of the evening was the light fantastic steps of some of the pioneers, who could not resist the inviting music. Mrs. Emil Retzlaff accompanied on the organ. Mrs. Inches was assisted by the town ladies. She will make her home for the winter months in the Felix Pella house.

JESSIE SCHOOL NOTES.

To the parents of the district: We shall try and note from week to week items of interest in our school work, with the earnest hope that it will create an added interest in the school and draw the pupil, parent, and teacher into a closer mutual understanding, and will ask for your hearty co-operation in order that the desired end may be attained. The one thing most desired is that each and every one may be in regular attendance. In this way they will not lose the connecting links of the study course. Let us all work together and make this school year one of the greatest interest and profit to each one.

William and Joseph Zimprich have enrolled at the school which now brings the attendance up to 42.

The seventh and eighth grades began reading "The Merchant of Venice" on Tuesday. We have started our Christmas program and are busy with rehearsals every available moment.

We would like very much if more of the parents and friends of the children would try and visit us and see what work we are endeavoring to accomplish. We were all glad to welcome Harold Dalton back to school after his long absence caused by breaking his arm.

Our memory gem for this week is "So nigh is granduer to our dust,
So near is God to man,
When duty whispers low,—'Thou must,'
The youth replies—'I can'."

S'MORE LOCALS

D. A. Goplin and family have left Binford and will make their future home in Mayville. With the departure of this estimable family, Binford sustains a loss that is hard to fill. Mr. Goplin will retain his holdings here. The best wishes of their friends go with them to their new home.

The painters are putting the finishing touches on the interior of the Free church this week. The church has been remodeled and an addition built so it now is very much improved in appearance both inside and outside. A number of the members gathered at the church Tuesday, and cleaned away the debris and other material in the yard. The congregation is to be commended on their progressiveness.

The carpenters and painters have finished their part of the work on Oscar Greenland's house, and the family moved into it last week. Mr. Greenland had a large addition built to his house this summer, and now has one of the finest and largest residences in the county. It contains about 17 rooms, including bath and large halls, all steam heated and electric lighted, with running water and all modern conveniences.

About thirty young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Rorvig, Monday evening, and gave their daughter Clara, a genuine surprise. There were several Jessie people present. Miss Rorvig will leave next week for Ray, in company with Miss Ella Thorn, to engage in dressmaking, and the party was in the nature of a farewell. She was presented with a beautiful leather traveling bag as a memento of the occasion. At midnight a delectable lunch was served, after which the merriment continued until a late hour. The wishes of their many friends go with the young ladies in their new venture.

C. E. Peterson was in Cooperstown the first of the week, to appear in district court as plaintiff in an action against the Getts Piano House of Grand Forks. Mr. Peterson was suing the defendant for commissions on pianos sold in this territory by him as a local agent. Plaintiff claimed a settlement on grounds that commissions were due him on such sales by a verbal agreement made by one of the company's travelling agents and later ratified by letters from the company, the consignment contract which had been entered into by the parties having expired after a period of one year, and the sales being made after the expiration
