

JESSIE NEWS.

G. B. Edmundson of Cooperstown was a business visitor on Monday.

Say—roast duck is all to the good when a man is away from—eh what?

O. E. Thorn accompanied by Miss Ella Thorn autoed to Cooperstown Saturday.

W. H. Mark was a visitor Thursday. Business elsewhere compelled him to push on.

The Catholic church held services Sunday forenoon. There was a large attendance.

Art Haugen was a business visitor on Friday evening last. Art's smile was as of old, a cheery one.

The movies Saturday night brot out many a hearty laugh. Threshing late, however, cut down the attendance.

A number of our people report excellent success in the duck hunt since the season opened. A few other birds suffered also.

Amundson and Aurnus found another car of stock for the South St. Paul market. Mr. Aurnus left on Tuesday with the car.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Roney motored to Lakota and points northeast on a business and pleasure trip on Sunday last, making in all 115 miles.

E. J. Fiebiger is busy building a new barn. Hovel and Sues are the contractors. Ed says crops or not, we must improve the property.

E. F. Fiebigger returned Tuesday for a brief visit to his father and brother at Fargo. His brother is taking treatments at the sanatorium at Fargo.

Barney Hogen left Tuesday for Gull Lake, Saskatchewan, where he will join Fred Sinclair, who will run a rig for the next 30 days in the north country.

R. F. McIntosh attended the quarterly conference at the M. E. church at Cooperstown Saturday evening, and was a guest of Rev. Stinson and family on Sunday.

Fred Tollefson and Gus Pella drove to the western part of Kidder county where Fred has some crops he wanted to look after. They left on Monday evening returning Tuesday evening. 300 miles in 24 hours besides sleep, meals and business is going some.

Rev. and Mrs. Stinson of Cooperstown and R. F. McIntosh were guests at the James McCulloch home last Sunday. Mrs. McCulloch motored to their home and attended services in the morning returning to Cooperstown in the evening. Rev. Stinson preached in the schoolhouse to a good audience. The congregation by a unanimous vote expressed their desire to continue the services every two weeks and also that the pastor continue to serve them. The next service will be held Sept. 24th.