

The train crew and shovelers undoubtedly never had so welcome a reception as on Saturday last when the Russell plow began to push thru the cuts to the east of Jessie. Practically the entire male population was there.

Jessie LeBlond, driver to Coopers