

Iver Knapp has assumed the position of "devil" in The Times office, and gives promise of becoming a full-fledged member of the art preservative in a short time.