

Carl Knutson returned last Thursday from northern Minnesota, where he had been employed in the woods during the winter. He went to Hannaford Saturday for an over-Sunday visit with his brother, Ingvald, who is employed in the meat market there.