

While sliding on skis along with her brother, Monday, Olga, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Siver Koloen, had the misfortune to break her leg. The accident happened when the boy stumbled and fell over her in such a way that in the fall her leg was broken near the hip. Dr. Truscott attended to the broken member, which will keep the child in bed for a month or so.

Tolson, T. J. ...