

pump when the accident occurred.

R. E. Leiser, formerly of Hannaford, and well known in this county, was employed in the Great Northern depot at Moorhead, when masked bandits held up and killed G. Sheffield, the night operator, at 1:15 Wednesday morning. The robbers secured the cash box containing $45.