

Victor Magnuson moved his family and household goods into town and is now settled in the Braaten house which he purchased this spring. Mr. Braaten and family have moved into their newly built residence. Other families who will move are Henry Peterson, who this week purchased the Pratt house, which is occupied by the J. D. Reid and Iver Alm families, who will have to hunt other quarters.

A ... old ... residing in the out