

Victor Magnuson pulled his car in from the farm Tuesday to have it repaired at the local garage. Victor had succeeded in reaching home from the fair at Cooperstown last week and when he attempted to run the car into the shed it bucked and by investigation one of the gears was found to be broken.

---