

Hector McKay arrived here Monday for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. H. B. Hanson, and family. He had just returned from Havre, Montana, and says the crops out there are practically all burned out by hot winds and lack of rain.

The barn on the Kroghs farm