

Francis Klingler and Olat Darré.

W. F. Moody was in town Tuesday attending to business matters. Mr. Moody held an auction sale of his personal property, Monday, and disposed of all his goods at a good figure. He will leave for Van Hook Saturday to make preparations for the erection of buildings on his land, as the family will move out there in the spring.

The sale put on at Cooperstown