

Photographer Newgard and wife returned Monday from Fargo, where Mr. Newgard was confined in a hospital, for the treatment of his leg. He had a siege of it, being in the hospital 14 weeks, but doesn't look any the worse for his long confinement. Lars' many friends are glad to see him looking so well but a second glance is now necessary to recognize him on account of a Van Dyke and mustache adornment. He has opened his studio and is now ready to resume his business which has suffered considerable owing to his long absence.
