

HOME TALENT PLAY A FEATURE

"A Crazy Idea," a Four-Act Comedy, Will Be Presented Celebration Day.

The four-act comedy, "A Crazy Idea" by Maurice Hageman, will be presented to the public at the opera house, next Friday evening, June 29th, by the Binford Dramatic club.

This comedy is one of the best ever selected by Binford talent. The play is full of continuous action and sustains interest throughout. The idea of the story is a crazy one, making it humorous from beginning to end.

Following is the cast of characters:

James Stone.....H. B. Hanson Beatrice, his young wife; Mrs. Miller, a widow...Mrs. Mabel Gorthy Eva, Stone's daughter by his first marriage..... Julia Alm Tom Blane, his nephew, a student of medicine.....C. E. Peterson Daniel Webster White, a colored gem'men of many accomplishments; William, Stone's servant..
..... F. C. Boeckman Gustave Puders, a composer.....
..... John Norman Julius Button, who flees from creditors, but is caught by a mother-in-law .. J. J. Herlick Lillian Tussell, a comic opera singer
..... Mrs. C. E. Peterson John Davis, from Kokomo ..
.....Oscar Greenland Catherina, his wife, Mrs. F. Ringlee Augusta, their daughter.....
..... Ruth Alfson Samual Hicks, Stone's friend from the rural districts; Hill, a shoemaker..... Herman Osen Neil Browning, Eva's suitor.....
..... George Olstad Anna, Lillian's maid; Dora, Stone's servant ..Inez Greenland A constable,..... Francis Ringlee