

at Park River.

Knute Norswing was called to Fargo last Thursday owing to the serious illness of his brother, Martinus, following an operation for appendicitis. Knute returned Saturday stating that his brother's condition had improved and that he was out of danger. "Tinus" has a large number of friends in Binford who will be pleased to hear of his early and complete recovery.