

We were all pleased to welcome our old friend, Art Olsen, now of Van Hook in the Indian reservation country, who motored into Jessie on Saturday last. Art is as brown as a nut and hard as a nail. He spent Sunday at the lake, Monday with his family at Cooperstown, and in company with Oliver Jenson left by auto for Pelican Rapids, Minnesota, to visit at Oliver's home. They will return in a short time. Art says business is good at Van Hook.
