

Anton Pederson and wife departed last Friday to make their future home in California. Mr. Pederson disposed of his personal property here and rented his farm. He owns a piece of land in California which he will farm. Their many friends in and around Binford wish them much success in their new home.