

At the meeting of the Commercial Club Monday night, it was decided that Pekin fittingly celebrate the 7th of June, and a committee was appointed to attend to details. It was further decided that all hitching posts be removed from the main streets and that safe hitching places be provided for, and a committee was appointed to see to this.

At the band rehearsal Wednesday