

of Bergen township.

The stability of the lockup was tested last Friday morning, when it was discovered a drunk that had been placed in there the evening before had simply "walked out." The breaks were remedied, and we understand, the next man who is put in will not find it so easy to get out.

m. . . . . of . . . . . or . . . . . paralysis