

Ten years ago on the 6th day of June, the first building work is said to have commenced in what is now the village of Pekin. Every year since then our town has celebrated the event, and in connection with it also the Norwegian Day, June 7th, but this year so far, no move has been made to celebrate the day. It seems to us that if there should ever have been any occasion for celebrating the birth of our town it should be on its tenth birthday, and we would suggest that the Commercial club get busy and arrange for a suitable celebration for the occasion.—Pekin Budget.
