

PEKIN NEWS.

Ben Raaen was having his horses inspected this week, and is gathering up his farm machinery preparatory to shipping to Canada next week.

The Base Ball Dance Friday of last week, in spite of the bad weather and nearly impassable roads, was anyway a success, netting the boys about $70.00. H. A. Small of McVilleville cried the sale of the baskets and delivered the goods in fine style.

The village board met Tuesday, new board was sworn in and organized, and the bonds of the newly elected officers approved of. All those elected qualified, and officers of Pekin for the year is as follows; Trustees, T. J. Alstad, chairman, W. E. Schroeder, Otto Sletten; clerk, B. M. Bureson; treasurer, O. E. Bergstrom; marshal, H. D. Eagle; justice E. C. Brekken; assessor, Ole O. Forde.

A remarkable acrobatic feat will be exhibited on April first, in front of the Budget office, at about 2 o'clock p. m., when Mrs. Otto Knapp will, unassisted, then and there, bodily and all at once, lift our well proportioned city mayor, T. J. Alstad, to the top of the tree in front of the Budget office, and will hold him there while he trims the top-most branches. No admission charged.

The Commercial Club of Pekin met at the city hall Monday evening and several measures of interests taken up. The calendar proposition was left to the committee to get the best they can for the amount allowed them. A committee of three, J. J. Elsaas, J. O. Johnson, and Obert Bergstrom, was appointed to investigate into the matter of an electric light plant for Pekin. O. C. Bus,

Aug. Rickford, and Martin Fredrickson were appointed as committee to see if a ball team can be arranged for and how much money can be raised for the purpose.—Pekin Budget.
