

PEKIN NEWS

Ida Stromme has been assisting at the restaurant this week, during the vacation of Anna Morken.

J. D. Gronna was among the many who were seen on our streets last Friday taking in the doings of the day.

H. A. Brown, of Cooperstown, manager of the Griggs Co. Telephone Co. was renewing acquaintances in Pekin this week.

O. S. Houge and crew have been working at the farms of Bennie Loe in Nesheim township building a couple of residences, this past week.

E. W. Loe and T. J. Alstad made a trip to Grand Fork the first of the week, returning with a new Buick automobile, which Ed has the agency for.

Lars K. Paulson took over the management of the local feed barn on Thursday having rented it for a year. He assures the public of fair rates and good treatment.

J. C. Christenson has been visiting with Base Ball Fans at Pekin for a few days. Mr. Christenson and Nels Bue left Thursday for Grand Forks, where they will play ball this season with the Northern league. A. L. Gulbro took them across in his Overland car, with H. D. Eagle as chauffeur and P. A. Lee escort.

At the meeting of the Commercial Club Monday night, it was decided that Pekin fittingly celebrate the 7th of June, and a committee was appointed to attend to details. It was further decided that all hitching posts be removed from the main streets and that safe hitching places be provided for, and a committee was appointed to see to this.

At the band rehearsal Wednesday evening, it was decided to continue with the rehearsals in spite of the busy season for the farmer boys, these being unable to lay off. Every effort possible will be made to make it possible for the country members farthest from town to meet up, even to take them in by auto during the busy season. This the kind of bunch that will be successful in the long run.—Pekin Budget,
