The ball game at Tolna last Sunday between Tolna and Pekin was another defeat for our team, the game ending in a score of 9 to 5.

Julius Bornsted, a former Forde township boy, was calling on friends in this locality this week. Mr. Bornsted is salesman for a shock loader, which he claims is a great success.

The Board of Directors of the Sheyenne Telephone Company met at Pekin Wednesday for general business. The building for the central is now finished and the work of installing the central in the new locality will commence at once. A new switchboard will be installed and the service generally improved.

Telegram was received by Jonas H. Enebo of Bergen township, Tuesday, of the death of Andrew Bjorlie, at Ryder, N. D. Particulars of his death were not given. J. H. Enebo, P. E. Bjorlie, P. A. Bjorlie, and N. O. Hagen autoed to Ryder Thursday to attend the funeral. The diseased was a working man of this locality for several years and is well known in this community. He was a comparatively young man barely past thirty years, and leaves his old parents and brothers and sisters in the old country. He was a member of the Sons of Norway lodge, and had carried an insurance policy of $1,000 in the M. B. A. Order until only a short time ago.—Budget.
