

The Sons of Norway met Monday night with about 25 members in attendance. The work of the committees for getting building plans was discussed to some extent, also opinions given as the desired size of said proposed building. Nothing definite was decided, but a trial vote showed a preference for a building of about 36x70-40 ft. ceiling, and full basement.—Pekin Budget.