

about 100 miles.

W. E. Wilkinson and Gus Pella left on Tuesday by auto for a trip to Richland county. When they reached Fargo they found that the roads were not of the best, and owing to the fact that the car was not equipped as a motor boat they decided that the train was the better proposition, which under the circumstances was good judgment. After a trip to Wyndmere and Lisbon, they returned to Fargo and took in the live stock exhibit and came home Saturday.
