

Mrs. C. E. Peterson and daughter, Phyllis, departed Tuesday for Spokane, Washington, for an extended visit. Mrs. Peterson will also attend the exposition at San Francisco before returning. She will be gone most of the summer which means that the editor of this great weekly luminary has got to go to work for a change.

Dr. J. Curtis of the agricultural