

The announcement of Charles Porterville of Cooperstown, for county treasurer appears in this issue of The Times. Charlie is one of the rural mail carriers at Cooperstown, and is well qualified for the position he seeks. He has a good following in Cooperstown and on his rural route and will prove a strong candidate. He will make the race on the Republican ticket.