

While playing the other evening, Myrtle, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pritz, had the misfortune to run a pitchfork into her ankle piercing it to the bone. The injury is healing nicely and she will be able to use her foot soon as well as ever.